Scott Smith concentrates his practice in the area of highly complex corporate finance transactions serving as counsel to borrowers, issuers, and lenders. Scott has deep experience on some of the most unique and significant cross-border loans and syndicated deals.

Scott's representative matters range from middle-market deals to multibillion-dollar financings in connection with:

- ABL facilities
- Acquisition and divestiture financings
- Capital call facilities
- Interest rate hedging transactions
- Joint ventures
- Private note issuances
- Workouts and restructurings

With extensive experience on both sides of the transaction, Scott helps banks, commercial finance companies, private equity groups, public and private companies, REITs, and second lien lenders maximize leverage and security in complex and sophisticated lending matters. Scott's finance and lending experience has extended to a wide range of industries, including branding, business services, construction, financial services, healthcare, litigation finance, manufacturing, maritime, metals, oil and gas, and pharmaceutical.
