Jackie is a matrimonial and family law attorney who represents high net worth individuals across a broad spectrum of industries including sports and entertainment, corporate, technology, and innovation. Jackie is particularly known for handling celebrity and high-profile cases with discretion. As a former corporate counsel for both private and publicly traded companies, Jackie has advised her clients on a wide range of high-stakes business and legal issues. Since practicing family law exclusively, Jackie has integrated her prior experience as corporate counsel into the intricacies involved in resolving complex family law matters with sophisticated financial circumstances. She handles all facets of family law issues, including high-asset and high-income dissolution matters, paternity, child support, and high-conflict custody cases, as well as negotiating premarital and postnuptial agreements. She is well recognized for her advocacy and settlement-oriented approach.
